

The Recycling Goose Game

A. Main topics

- Importance of a correct everyday waste segregation
- Importance of recycling in developing a sustainable society
- Knowledge of what should go into the recycling bin

B. targeted audience

- 8-13 years old
- Suitable also for family groups during public events

C. Key concepts

- What type of materials are present in our daily-life things
- Recycling always aims to produce secondary raw materials from “wastes” (Urban Mining)
- How to separate and sort wastes correctly in every home
- Individual decision can make a difference for the whole society

D. Interactive activity

- Playing this board game, students gather a deeper understanding of what can and cannot be recycled and how to segregate correctly household waste. Prior knowledge on the subject is not necessary.

E. Toolkit material

- Background information on the topic for the teachers, introduction to waste segregation and recycling for the players and game rules.
- Printable materials necessary for the game.
- Cube

F. RM Tutors: CNR-ISOF

Lorenzo Forini lofo1993@gmail.com, Eleonora Polo tr3@unife.it, Armida Torreggiani armida.torreggiani@isof.cnr.it, Renata Lapinska-Viola renata.lapinska-viola@isof.cnr.it